

SECRETARY HUGHES TALKS PLAINLY TO BRITISH GOVERNMENT

American Counsel Had No Authority From State Department To Have British Concession Annulled--U. S. Never Recognized Old Tinoco Regime.

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 19.—Secretary Hughes has informed the British government that if the American consul at San Jose used influence to have the new government in Costa Rica annul concessions covering potential oil lands obtained from the old Tinoco regime by a company in which British capital was interested, he did so without authority from the state department.

At the same time, the secretary is understood to have said the United States had never recognized any acts of the Tinoco administration and even if the consul did use his influence, as has been intimated in the House of Commons, the American government could not understand how any such action during the period prior to the annulment would furnish necessarily an occasion for criticism by the British government.

The text of Mr. Hughes' communication is withheld. At the state department today, it was described as a memorandum of an informative nature prompted by questions raised in commons recently as to the attitude of the United States with respect to the concession. It was added that the memorandum was not in reply to any communication from Great Britain.

Concessions Annulled
The concessions in Costa Rica were annulled last year. They are discussed in a report from the state department transmitted to the Senate today by the White House in response to a resolution of inquiry by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho.

The department's records that the meeting of the corporation's stockholders was in Montreal, Canada, and adds:
"The company holding the amory concession in its communications with the department, persistently concealed the participation of foreign interests.

The report also said the state department "declared publicly some time prior to negotiation of the amory concession that it would not consider any claims of American citizens from a business transaction with the Tinoco administration as worthy of its diplomatic support."

"The attitude assumed, the report added, "was based upon its general policy toward the usurping, revolutionary regime in Costa Rica, never recognized by this government and which passed out of existence September 2, 1919."

GIFT SHOP FEATURE AT BASSETT STORE

New Department to Local Jewelry Establishment—Attractive Display of Artware Is Made.

The Gift Shop is a new department at the Bassett Jewelry store. It has been designed after four months of investigation and planning by Mr. Vorce Bassett and the best ideas for displaying artware have been followed out. Glass panels and white enameled woodwork furnish the Gift Shop background and the artistic arrangement of shelving provides for the most satisfactory display of the wares which Mr. Bassett has secured.

The artware in American Venetian attracts instant attention and the articles in lustre glass are not less attractive. Art metal has its place and the list of offerings is fully equal to that found in the gift shops in the larger cities.

The department has been added as a permanent feature of the store and men and women of Jacksonville and surrounding territory are invited to inspect it, whether or not they are prospective purchasers.

ASK IMMEDIATE RECOGNITION OF IRISH REPUBLIC

Action Taken in Resolutions at Chicago Convention

PEOPLE OF INDIA SEND GREETINGS

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, April 19.—Immediate recognition of Ireland as a free and sovereign state was asked of the United States in resolutions adopted tonight at the first annual convention of the American Association for the recognition of the Irish republic.

Declaring the association was composed of more than 500,000 members who were represented by 4,100 delegates, the resolution said:

"The president is also respectfully urged to notify the president of the Irish republic to appoint duly accredited commissioners or ambassadors to negotiate with the president of the United States such treaty or treaties as may be now in existence between the United States and the governments of the most favored nations."

Another resolution extended "heartily sympathy and assurances of support to the cause of Indian independence, and the just national aspirations of all other peoples," after declaring that "the Indian people under the leadership of Mahatma M. K. Gandhi, are struggling to attain absolute independence and establish a Federated Republic of the United States of India."

The resolution was adopted after Tara Knath Das, as general organizer for the Friends of Freedom in India had addressed the delegates and pledged them the "support of many millions of my kindred in the cause of freedom from British rule."

Another resolution, said by delegates to be directed as a blow against English trade urged association members to buy only American made goods and recommended "any form of advertising which will effectively bring before the mind of the American people the necessity of protecting our country against the commercial schemes of British imperialism."

Asylum in America for Donal O'Callaghan, stowaway lord mayor of Cork, who has been ordered by the state department to leave the country within sixty days, was the subject of another resolution. The following message was proposed to be sent to Eamonn de Valera:

"We pledge the moral and financial assistance of every liberty loving American to the end that the republic of Ireland may be recognized by the nations."

MEXICAN TRAIN HELD UP AT SAUZ

El Paso, Texas, April 30.—A Mexican national train from Mexico City was held up at Sauz, 300 kilometers south of Juarez, some time early this morning. Meager reports received by the Juarez police were to the effect that the holdup was perpetrated by a band headed by Nicholas Rodriguez, a former Villa general. A report that Enrique Creel, former ambassador to the United States, and his brother-in-law, Albert Terrazas, were among those robbed, could not be confirmed.

At military headquarters, it was said the wires had been cut and no particulars from the holdup had been received. Gen. G. Escobar, in command of the troops in Chihuahua, promised an official statement, just as soon as communication was re-established.

PREDICT TREATY WILL BE RATIFIED BY SENATE TODAY

Opponents of Ratification Conceded Defeat Last Night

DISCUSSION SHOWS DIVERSITY OF VIEWS

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 19.—Ratification with votes to spare was the forecast of senate administration leaders on the eve of tomorrow's vote on the pending Colombian treaty. Opponents of ratification for the most part tonight conceded defeat in their efforts to bring about the rejection of the $25,000,000 pact.

Polls were said to show that approximately 40 Republicans and 50 Democrats would vote for the treaty. This would be a half dozen more than the necessary two-thirds.

Discussion of the treaty will close at four p. m. tomorrow. Then will come votes on amendments, the first of which were offered today by Senator Ransdell, Democrat, Louisiana, and the final vote.

The Ransdell amendments provide for a $20,000,000 payment to Colombia for the loss of Panama instead of the $25,000,000 payment contemplated; for the loan of $25,000,000 to Colombia, for cession by Colombia of the providence, Strandrews and Soniguos Islands to the United States; for construction of no canal thru Colombian territory without the assent of the United States; and for formation of an alliance between Colombia and the United States. Administration leaders predicted the defeat of these amendments.

Many Different Views.
Discussion brought forth diversity of views. Senators Shortridge, of California, and McCumber, of North Dakota, Republicans, and Senators Volcott, of Delaware, and Ransdell, of Louisiana, Democrats, argued ratification, while Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri, opposed it.

Senator Shortridge declared ratification would "reflect no dishonor on the dead, will cast no discredit on the living, and will strengthen days of peace and buttress us should danger menace."

Ratification "with its amendments would do substantial justice," Senator Ransdell held, while Senator McCumber, who opposed the treaty in 1917, said he would vote for ratification, leaving it with the President to secure results.

Senator Reed declared ratification would amount to "confession of the ravishment of Colombia by the United States, a plea of guilty that we have been caught with the goods, and would 'spell infinite difficulty and trouble in the future.'"

Old men and women predominated among the mourners. Most of the thousands of officers who lined the roadway leading to the mausoleum were men of years, many of them wearing the uniform and decorations of former wars.

It was the demobilized army and navy and the dethroned rulers of various principalities once forming the German federation which gathered at Wildbark. And it was chiefly members of the old regime who cheered Von Hindenburg, Ludendorff and Von Mackensen, when they left Antike temple after the ceremony, which was probably the final great gathering of the following of the Hohenzollerns.

Germany's new government offered no objection to a ceremonial funeral for the former empress; neither did it officially participate, further than to send troops to police the grounds.

The demonstrations in honor of Von Hindenburg and other prominent military leaders were the only evidence of the deep political feeling underlying the occasion.

Dr. Dryander, former court chaplain, read the one hundred and twenty-sixth Psalm and preached from the text "They that sow in tears shall reap in joy." The sermon dwelt upon the Christian life led by the empress and her devotion to her family.

RAILROAD BOARD WRESTLES WITH MANY FIGURES

Ask Right to Hire Labor at Prices in Their Own Territory

COMPREHENSIVE EXHIBITS ARE MADE

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, April 19.—The railroad labor board waded thru another avalanche of figures today as more than a score of roads presented column after column of figures in their plea for revision of wage scales. Reduced cost of living and decreases in wages paid similar labor in other industries have made present railroad wages unjustifiable the carriers contended and several roads predicted receiverships and bankruptcy if the situation was not remedied at once.

Colored women washing windows for railway companies, get $120 a month in the south, while postal employees get but $116 to $125, one witness declared and numerous others cited statistics to show lower wages in other industries than those paid by the railroads.

General trend of exhibits showed decreases in the cost of food, clothing and shoes and nearly parallel recessions in outside wages.

Most roads asked reductions which compared favorably with the decreases in the cost of living or asked that they be allowed to hire labor at the prevailing market price in their own territory.

Comparison of Rates.
The comparison of hourly rates a year ago and at present brought forth a discussion between A. O. Wharton, labor member of the board and J. H. Higgins, secretary of the association of Western Railroads.

Mr. Wharton said the difference in hours between 1917 and the present time might reduce the total earnings of laborers to any equality, even the hourly rate might be higher. One of the most comprehensive exhibits of the day was presented by L. W. Baldwin, vice-president of the Illinois Central Railroad. It represented out-of-side wage scales in different parts of the country.

The prevailing rates of pay for similar common labor on the Illinois Central was set forth as 45 to 48 1-2 cents an hour.

Other general exhibits showed decreases of 36.4 to 43 percent in food, in 29 to 36 3-4 percent in clothing and 25 to 33 1-3 percent in shoes.

GERMANY THAT HAS PASSED IN TRIBUTE TO FORMER EMPRESS

Old Men and Women Predominant Among the Mourners

FORMER ARMY OFFICERS CHEERED

(By The Associated Press)
POTSDAM, Germany, April 19.—It was the Germany that has passed which last Augusta Victoria, former empress, to rest today in the Antike temple.

Old men and women predominated among the mourners. Most of the thousands of officers who lined the roadway leading to the mausoleum were men of years, many of them wearing the uniform and decorations of former wars.

It was the demobilized army and navy and the dethroned rulers of various principalities once forming the German federation which gathered at Wildbark. DEVELOPEMENT OF AVIATION RECOMMENDED

Report Was Drawn up at Request of President Harding

WOULD HAVE AIR ROUTES ESTABLISHED

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 19.—Recommendations for the development and regulation of aviation, drawn up at the request of President Harding by the national advisory committee for aeronautics, were submitted to congress today with the executive's approval and in the expectation that legislation will be enacted to carry the program into effect.

The report was accompanied by a brief message from the president in which he explained he had solicited from the committee suggestions for regulation of air navigation, air routes and cooperation among the various departments of the government concerned with aviation.

The committee recommended that the army and navy continue to control their air services, that the postoffice department be authorized to establish new air routes and that a bureau of aeronautics be established in the department of commerce to foster commercial aviation.

Would Establish Air Routes.
Congress was urged to appropriate $2,000,000 for use during the next two years by the war department in establishing air routes and to grant explicit authority to the postoffice department to establish airways other than the route between New York and San Francisco. It was particularly urged that the department be authorized to establish an air route between Chicago, Minneapolis and St. Paul and another between Chicago and St. Louis.

The committee stressed the necessity of maintaining in peace time an adequate force of trained aviators and up to date planes for use as a nucleus in case of war. Continuation of the army air service as a coordinate combatant branch of the army was urged and it was suggested that the naval air service be centralized in a bureau of aeronautics in the navy department.

The report declared the army had no specific authority of law to establish air routes, but had charted seven main airways, as follows: Augusta, Maine, to Camp Lewis, Washington; Savannah, Ga., to San Francisco; Savannah, Ga., to San Diego, Calif.; Augusta, Me., to Miami, Fla.; Camp Lewis, Wash., to San Diego, Calif.; Laredo, Texas, to Fargo, N. D., and Chicago to Baton Rouge, La.

The point below which wages shall not be automatically reduced to be determined nationally. To turn over as wages to the workers in addition to the rates, the whole surplus revenue available in each district during the existing period.

To satisfy the workers' representatives in each district that the district is proposing to pay all the wages it can bear.

To seek an agreement with the workers of a national basis regarding the relation between wages and profits for the future.

Statement Is Issued
After the conference, the president of the Owners' Association said:

"We are hoping the miners will meet us on the wage question soon."

It is possible that the next 24 hours may see the reopening of negotiations, although the miners thus far appear desirous of awaiting the result of their delegates' meeting Friday.

Meanwhile the situation arising thru the shortage of coal is growing more serious. In many of the poorer districts of London and other cities, where the people buy in small quantities, coal cannot be obtained. Every hour sees more families closed and more men and women thrown out of employment.

In all parts of the country iron and steel works are damping their fires. It is estimated that between 800 and 900 steamships are tied up owing to stagnation of trade and the strike.

PRESIDENT HARDING PROCLAIMED A NEW MONROE DOCTRINE

Says That United States is Ready to Fight for It if it Should be Necessary—President Also Speaks for One Minute to the Blind at the Lighthouse—Deeply Moved There

NEW YORK, April 19.—The Republics of North and South America joined hands across the Caribbean today in two notable historical events commemorating their heroes who showed each continent the road to liberty.

Amid the roar of cannon and the plaudits of a large gathering, President Harding, at the bronze equestrian statue of Simon Bolivar, of Venezuela, unveiled in Central Park, proclaimed anew the fundamentals of the Monroe Doctrine and cited the desirability of standing firmly together for service both to the new and the old world.

Simultaneously in Caracas, President-Elect Gomez and Venezuelans gathered around the statue of George Washington, which was unveiled with appropriate exercises in Washington park, a new site to which it had been transferred.

President Harding was generously applauded when he declared that the United States is ready to fight in upholding the Monroe Doctrine.

"The history of the generations since that doctrine was proposed," he said, "has proved that we never intended it selfishly. On the other side, the history of the last decade certainly must have convinced all the world that we stand willing to fight if necessary, to protect these continents, these sturdy young democracies, from oppression."

The President's arrival at Bolivar Hill was signalized by a salute of 21 guns. He was escorted to the stand facing the statue, followed by Secretary Hughes, Rene Viviani, envoy extraordinary from France, Gov. Miller, Mayor Hyland, D. E. Gil-Borges, Venezuelan foreign minister and a host of Latin-American diplomats.

The unveiling of the statue by the great granddaughters of Gen. Jose Antonio Paez, was the occasion for another salute of 21 guns, followed by the playing of the Venezuelan national anthem by a Brazilian naval band, and the presentation by Minister Gil-Borges. Mayor Hyland accepted it for the city, and wreaths were laid at the base of the statue by various societies. Gov. Miller then eulogized the South American liberator and the President was introduced.

Speaks to Blind
President Harding was driven at high speed through lanes of cheering people to the "Lighthouse" of the blind, where he spoke for one minute to a sightless audience that had eagerly awaited him.

"We are glad to welcome you, Mr. President," said Miss Winifred Holt. "We hope the lighthouse movement may usher in a new era of light for the blind that under your leadership, we shall win the war against darkness."

The President spoke slowly and softly in tones scarcely audible to those in the rear of the hall. There was a distant tremor in his voice, his face was sad as he framed in his mind the words to suit the moment in such great contrast to the vivid spectacle on Bolivar Hill.

"I haven't time to stay and talk to you today," the President barely whispered. "But I just want you to know that if there is anything I can do to set aglow a flame in the soul that is denied the light, God helping me, I mean to do it. I would like to make all America realize what this great work means and do its utmost to help those who cannot see. I would like to make you understand by my voice, how deeply I want to bring you some light in your hearts and I wish for you all the joy that you can find, in compensation for the loss of the great light."

IDARO DISCOVERS
NEW BRAND OF HOOTCH
Idaho Falls, Idaho, April 19.—A new brand of "hootch" but one with an awful "kick" and that for 15 cents, was found today when Chief of Police Tealerson found two men drinking a well known kind of "canned heat." Both were described as "crazy drunk" and one who was small and one-armed, sought a fist encounter with the large officer. The only requirement of the new "hootch" is a cast-iron stomach, it is declared.

It's a fine thing to give Mexico's creditors all the facts, but it is not likely to prove an easy task to get any further big loans just at the present time.

It has been a popular theory that those people who continually carp about the menace of Japan were merely "seein' things at night." But the recent exchange of notes between the U. S. and Japan sheds a good deal of light on the real attitude of the Japanese. There is nothing in the final note to indicate that the yellow people hold Uncle Sam in any special reverence.

The overwhelming dry majority in Ontario presents some further evidence to support the contention of the dry advocates that prohibition is a world wide issue. Certainly there is nothing in that issue to give encouragement to those people who have chosen to look upon the anti-liquor crusade as something of a fad.

F. H. Collier, who writes an interesting column each day for the Globe Democrat, has suggested that he has not heard of "mind your own business" week. It's not surprising that this paragrapher is wondering why such a week has not been designated, for most everything else has been shaped into such special observances.

Emden is one Illinois city where a community house which cost $50,000 has just been dedicated. It was made possible by a law which permits the erection of such buildings if the people express the wish at an election. Certainly when money is to be spent for any memorial purpose the community house plan offers a practical and useful means of expression.

Reports from Red Cross chapters the country over indicate increasing instances wherein service men appeal for assistance. This is no doubt the result of a general unemployment condition and does not mean that there has been any slumping off in the morale of the former soldiers. The Red Cross can do more efficient work than giving aid to ex-service men, when they are found to be in needy condition not of their own making.

THE ELECTION RESULT

The election yesterday settled the identity of the officers who will serve the city of Jacksonville for the coming two years, and added four men to the council for a like period. The vote cast for Mr. Crabtree as mayor, who was without opposing candidate, was as large as could be expected under such circumstances. If his administration needed an endorsement the vote could be construed as such.

Mr. Scott has the qualifications for an excellent clerk and there is no question as to the fitness of Mr. Chenoweth as treasurer.

In the first ward Alderman McGinnis returns to the council with valuable experience, and in the third ward Mr. Loneragan can be counted upon to act from honest motives for the best interest of the public as he sees it. Mr. Ehlers' vote in the fourth ward, and the fact that he was without opposition indicated general satisfaction with his record. The youngest member of the council will be R. Y. Rowe of the second ward. Those familiar with his successful business record and his interest in public affairs are certain that his elections aids strength to the council.

A large number responded to the invitation and a splendid menu was served, consisting of baked chicken, roast beef, dressing, mashed potatoes, gravy, peas in putty shells, Perfection salad, pickles, relish, hot rolls, ice cream, cake and coffee. GOVERNMENT WILL BORROW ENGINEER

Asks Italy for One Skilled in Construction of Dirigible and Semi-Rigid Airships.

Rome.—The United States has asked the Italian government to lend to America the services of an engineer skilled in the construction of semi-rigid dirigible airships and several other men to aid in the building in the United States of craft like the Roma, the big dirigible purchased in Italy. The Italian government has granted the request and the Italian engineer, Celestine Uselli, designer of the Roma will supply plans and instructions for the proposed American craft.

It is understood that the Americans have intimated that they would be glad to have the services of Signor Nobili, the builder of the Roma and also her Italian crew to aid in airship building. It is stated that the American airships of the same kind as the Roma, and also the five meters shorter than the Italian vessel bought by America, so that they can be sheltered in the American hangars.

Signor Uselli is planning larger dirigibles for Italy. "I intend to start immediately the construction of another dirigible measuring 46,000 cubic meters, the largest that can enter the present Italian hangars," he said. "This new ship will replace the Roma, but will be able to fly without alighting almost twice as long."

"My next great construction will be a super-giant, semi-rigid dirigible for the construction of which I must await the arrival from Germany of three colossal hangars assigned to Italy. I shall then build an airship 220 meters in length, 34 in height and 120,000 cubic meters in volume. It will be equipped with 24 motors of 250-horsepower each of which only one third will be in use at a time. The other two-thirds will be kept in reserve so that each motor will work only six or seven hours, and will have from 10 to 12 hours for rest and cleaning."

"This dirigible will be able to fly for 10 days consecutively and therefore could make the tour of the world alighting only once. It will carry 100 passengers besides a crew of 25 and 10 servants and will cost 10,000,000 lire. "My chief desire is," said Engineer Uselli, "to demonstrate that a dirigible can fly in any weather and stand any storm, alighting without need of a hangar."

"I also wish to demonstrate that the dirigible is a good business proposition."

INTER-CITY DEBATE FRIDAY NIGHT

J. H. S. Wranglers Will Meet East St. Louis on Jap Question

The first high school inter-city debate will be held Friday night, April 22nd, when the Jacksonville debaters meet those of East St. Louis. The question for debate will be, "Resolved, That Japanese Immigrants Should Be Admitted to This Country on the Same Basis as the European Immigrants."

The Jacksonville wranglers under the able direction of Miss Emma Mae Leonard are working hard on the question and will undoubtedly make a fine showing Friday night. The affirmative which will debate here consists of Thelma Pires, Harry Furry and Howard Nicol. Gene Durr, Mary Slim and Lee Baldwin are on the negative team which goes to East St. Louis.

An effort is being made to create an interest in the debating and other literary activities of the high school as well as in the athletic activities. Debating requires a great deal of time, earnest study, and careful training and deserving of loyal support by the students and town people. In order to defray traveling expenses of the teams and out of town judges, a small charge of fifteen cents will be made for the debate. It will be held in the high school auditorium Friday night at eight o'clock and it is hoped there will be a good crowd.

RANSON REALTY CO.

Don't you think that one acre of good Illinois corn, or Kansas alfalfa and wheat dirt contains more true and lasting wealth than any bank vault? Today the men from these states are emerging from gloom as they realize nothing fundamental has been lost. Many who were in the dumps are now ready to lay a fresh bet. How can good land lose out? Its value has an irreducible minimum. Stocks, bonds, and even currency may fade into zero, 100% worthless, but productive land ever retains a substantial value. Europe must resume eating. America has to eat. Then why should the future of good real estate not be as certain and secure as the sunrise? We have several fine farms that might interest you. Some smaller places close in, too.

CITY PROPERTY
We have several fine homes on College avenue, West State and West North that are real honest to goodness bargains. That is—about one-half of what you could build them for.

HOW THE CIVIC GOVERNMENT OPERATES

(By E. E. CRABTREE.)

Villages and cities derive their powers to organize a government from an act of the state legislature, authorizing the secretary of state to grant charters.
In Illinois the state allows two kinds of government—commission
and Aldermanic, and there is now
a bill before the legislature to grant what is known as managerial form.

Jacksonville is operated under
the general law, and the aldermanic form of government, and this is what we are interested in today. Everything must be done
according to the statutes of the state.

The City Council is empowered by statute to pass an ordinance calling for a primary election for the selection of one candidate for each party for mayor,
city clerk, city treasurer, and not more than two aldermen representing each party from each
ward.

After this selection has been made, the council must again
pass an ordinance calling for an election for the selection of a mayor, city clerk, city treasurer
and two aldermen from each
ward.

The law specifies that the city council must divide the city into precincts of not more than 450
voters to a precinct. Jacksonville
therefore, is divided into sixteen precincts, and must provide 16
voting places, and the machinery
for voting, as follows:

1st. Two registration days,
presided over by three judges,
which cost the city, by state statute, as follows:

3 judges on registration
days $3.00 per day x

16 voting places$288.00

14 registration places,
(city owns two) x $3

x 2 rental days $4.00

Cost of polling, books and stationery.....

For Primary Election

3 judges and 3 clerks $6

per day and 16 voting

places$576.00

Rental of 14 voting

places @ $10, per day... 140.00

Election supplies, ballots,
etc. 180.00

Hauling, voting booths to

16 places, 2 times.... 25.00

For general election (duplicate the primary)... 921.00

Total cost of one general election$2214.00

Add for stationery, etc.,
some small incidentals

and maybe meals—16

x $50c 96.00

This is a total of approximately $2,300.00 yearly, cost for the election of Jacksonville officials, or 1-20 of the entire corporate tax.

The mayor, city clerk and treasurer and alderman are elected for a two year term, but the term of aldermen from the same ward alternate, that is to say—the terms of one alderman
from each ward expire every year,
so that on the off year from the general election there are four aldermen to be elected, and the cost is just the same.

After election, it is the duty of the mayor, with the assistance of the council, to apportion the members of the council into various committees for the conduct of the city's business. A city council differs from the legislature and congress, in that two bodies are purely legislative or creative bodies, while councils are both legislative and executive.

The council of Jacksonville, by ordinance is divided into the following committees: Finance,
police, fire, highway, sewers,
public health, cemetery, public improvements water, light, judiciary, ordinance.

It is then the duty of the mayor with the assistance of the council to appoint the administrative heads of the various departments as follows:

Chief of police department.

Chief of fire department.

Supt. of water department.

Supt. of light department.

Supt. of Highways.

Supt. of sewers.

Supt. of garbage.

City attorney.

and as many men and women
employees of these departments
as the necessity requires.

Now the organization is ready to do business.

Let us think of the city as a large corporation, with all of the voters as stockholders, with the members of the council as the board of directors, and with the mayor as president of the board of directors, of the chief executive.

A corporation has a capital
stock and is organized on a basis
for profit and a wise corporation sets aside a certain amount of its
profit each year to surplus.

The capital stock of a city, is
its public property, like city
hall, filter plant, light plant, etc.
Its revenues are its taxes. Please bear in mind that outside of fines,
collected, permits and license
fees, which are very small, that its only source of revenue is taxes, and taxes are obtained as follows:

After January 1st of each year
and prior to March 1st, the city council by ordinance must pass
what is known as an appropriation ordinance, specifying certain moneys, not yet received for items of expense, that the council
thinks or knows from experience
it will need during the year.

The council can spend no
money not appropriated in the ordinance, nor can it change the appropriation ordinance after March first. If the council has made a mistake in the various appropriations, the city must suffer.

Then from this appropriation ordinance, must be passed before Sept. 1, of each year, the tax levy ordinance or an ordinance
certifying to the county clerk,
the moneys needed to run the city.

The present statute of Illinois
says that cities can levy a corporate tax of $1.33 on every hundred dollars of assessed value
of real and personal property owned in the city. The assessed value is 1-2 the assessed value.
For example if you are the owner of property, the assessed value will be 1-2 or $500.00 the rate 1-33 on each $100—or a tax of 6.66 on each $1,000.00 of assessed property.

Then the legislature grants a rate for a special tax, for special purposes, like park, library, garbage, road tax, etc., but the law
also says that the total of these taxes shall not exceed $2.00 per
c of assessed value.

For the year 1920 Jacksonville,
collected from all sources, $106, 630.84. There are 15713 persons, or a collected tax of $6.79
for each person, in Jacksonville.
It will be less this year.

There is always a huge cry
raised against excessive taxes,
but the people demand much,
and people should know for
what their money is spent,
and should realize that it is
as expensive proportionately
for a city to function, as it is for a family.

There is one reason I brought out the items of expense for an election, so that you may see that it does not take many such items
to consume the entire amount of corporate tax.

Let us study for a few moments the expense of conducting
some departments.

Fire Department.

We have nine firemen, (we should have not less than 13),
they are paid from $95.00 to $125.00 for the chief per month,
th total expense for their department for 1920 was $10,884.92
which included salary, repairs,
hose, incidentals, etc.

Or we spend per capita 69c.

Police Department.

We have one chief, 1 night captain, 2 desk sergeants, 2 day patrolmen, 2 night patrolmen, and one automobile policeman, a total of nine men. We should have not less than 15. Their salaries are from $95.00 to $125.00 for the chief per month.
The cost of the department for 1920 was $11,662.14, or there was expended per capita, 74c.
this included salaries, upkeep of automobile, printed matter, telegrams, telephones, some railroad
expenses, and incidentals.

Highway Department.

In this department for 1920
we spent $19,503.68. Out of the wheel tax fund we spent $3775.74
or a total of $23,279.42 or a per capita of $1.48 each.

In the city we have:

24 miles paved streets to be kept clean

30 miles unpaved streets to be kept graded and cleaned.

28.2 miles sewers to be kept
open and repaired.

Jacksonville covers an area of 3500 acres.

This money was spent
for street intersections, concrete, about $6013.00
For street culverts about 1347.00
For repairs, South Main

Main street 363.71

For grading and labor... 6000.00

For general repairs... 2000.00

For general repairs pay-
ed streets 3775.00

Balance for salaries varying from four to twelve men, salary
running from day labor to Supt.
@ $125.00 per mo.—for keep of
two horses, street equipment,
some brick, tile, sand, cement,
incidentals, etc.

And so I could go on analyzing each department. There is a never ending demand from citizens for some small thing to be done—like fixing a gutter—
grading a street, opening a stopped sewer, culverts to be repaired, and so on, not all requests
can be granted, but every time a man, or men are sent on such errands, it costs money.

I have often said, I wish it were possible for every citizen to know exactly where every cent
was collected, and how it was spent, for in that way would we realize that we are then a partner of the great corporation of the city in which we live.

Public opinion is the great enforcer of law, and the proper management of city affairs. Do you realize that ten per cent of the people govern the ninety per cent? That great ninety per cent can do whatever it wishes if
it co-operates.

During the past two years, I have had no cause to complain as to the interest of the citizens in city affairs, and yet I am anxious that more citizens should know more of our city.

I think such meetings as these are splendid, and I would have you appoint various committees
to follow the Council's activities,
find out the problems and help us to better them, you can do much in this way.

The time when political boss is rapidly passing. People are demanding real business methods
in municipal government. They are tired of political talk, and buncombe.

The women are the great force
for good in political affairs today—you are, by instinct, for what is right. But you are no different than the men in that the great majority of you are not aware of your powers, and leave municipal duties to the ten per cent.

If you do this, and things go wrong you have no one to blame
but yourself.

I believe in compulsory voting.

RECEPTION IS GIVEN AT MURRAYVILLE HOME

ning at their home in Murray-
ville for the members of the cast
of "An Old Fashioned Mother,"
which was presented in Carlson's

in no other way will we get a real expression of the people.

Jacksonville never had such an outlook as it has at this moment.
We have hundreds of problems to solve.

No one is better fitted to help solve them than you, in this organization.

In matters of civic betterment,
it is the outlook that counts.

There can be no progress of consequence unless the women
are looking well ahead.

No town is better than its women. The town's vision is limited by the vision of its people.

Is our vision clear enough to co-operate to the end that the city's many problems can be solved.

Will we give time enough for study of these problems or will
we hastily and lazily jump at conclusions.

A wonderful work is before
you!

I congratulate you on this conference!

The Jacksonville city election
Tuesday was a comparatively quiet
event. E. E. Crabtree for mayor, H. K. Chenoweth for treasurer
were unopposed and there were two wards in which there were no aldermanic contests. R. Y. Rowe in the second and C. F. Ehnie in the fourth, being the candidates.
These facts naturally served to lessen public interest and about
one-third of the total normal
vote was cast.

The closest contest was for the clerkship between Miss Genevieve Mount on the Republican ticket
and Jewell E. Scott on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Scott was elected by a majority of 61.

ADVISE FARMERS TO RAISE SUNFLOWERS

Matures Quicker Than Corn and Is Very Profitable—Also Makes Palatable Silage.

Springfield, Ill.—Subject to fewer plant diseases and insect pests than most any other crop
grown in Illinois, sunflowers, according to Prof. J. C. Hackleman
of the University of Illinois,
makes the most promising crop
especially for farmers of Southern Illinois. Professor Hacke-
man, who is in charge of Farm Crops Extension at the state university, has just prepared detailed instructions for planting,
harvesting and storing the sun-
flower crop.

"Sunflowers require less time
than corn to mature," according to Professor Hackleman, "they produce two or three times as much total green matter, are not bothered by chinch bugs and thrive under conditions of drouth which would prevent corn
from making crop. Sunflowers
are the most promising substitute
for corn now available for the use of farmers of Southern Illinois.
"Sunflowers are not only
hardy and capable of large production but they make excellent feed as well. Present information as to their feeding value is not as complete as might be desired, but all data available indicates that silage made from sunflowers is practically equal to that from corn. Sunflower silage seems practically as palatable as the corn silage altho an occasional cow is found that refuses to eat it at first. Most cases of this kind are soon overcome as the cow
will begin to eat the silage slowly
and eventually seems to relish
it.

Mammoth Russian.

"The Mammoth Russian variety is practically the only one grown in Illinois and is well adapted. Sunflowers are usually reeded in rows same width
as corn. The amount of seed varies from five pounds for rather thin seeding (plant ten to fifteen inches apart) to as much as ten or twelve pounds in thick seeding (plant five to eight inches apart). The wheat drill (oat chutes) makes a very satisfactory seeding tool.

"Sunflowers are cultivated like
corn and usually require about the same amount. The cost of production is practically the same as that for corn.

"Yields vary greatly but sun-
flowers have been seeded thin
and allowed to form the large heads it is hard to handle in the bundles. The large heads are troublesome to put thru the silage cutter as they have a tendency to crop up just ahead of the feeder rolls.

"Sunflower silage packs more solidly than corn silage and a silo therefore will hold a greater tonnage of it than the corn silage.
Where the crop is cut too
immature the silage becomes watery
but when cut later just after the heads are in full bloom and the seeds are forming the silage is much the same condition as good corn silage.

"The sunflower seems to be subject to fewer diseases and insect pests than far than most any other crop grown in the state.
About the only trouble reported
has been the leaf rust which caused the loss of the greater portion of the lower leaves.
Kansas reports that grasshoppers
cause some trouble and Colorado
found their stands somewhat reduced by the putworms. Neither of these two "bugs" have caused
any reported damage in Illinois.

"Sunflowers are deserving of a much wider recognition in Southern Illinois, particularly where the chinch bugs are causing losses. Every farmer who has a silo and enough stock to consume the silage could profitably substitute sunflowers for corn as his silage crop. They fit admirably into many rotations
where corn is omitted.

Legumes should also be used to the limit in the pinch bug area.
The following rotations are applicable:

- Four year rotation.
Wheat, Sunflower, Wheat,
Clover.
- Soybeans, Rye or Cowpeas.
Five year rotation.
Corn, Soybeans, Wheat (Sw.
Clover), Wheat or Rye.

DEFEATS SHURTLEFF

Take Close Game from Visitors
By Score of 4 to 3—Fanning
Held Shurtleff Hitless for Five Innings.

Coach Harmon's Illinois College team defeated Shurtleff at baseball on Illinois field Tuesday afternoon by a score of 4 to 3.
The game was witnessed by a large crowd and much enthusiasm was shown by the rooters.

Illinois looked to be an easy
winner until the sixth inning when they were leading by a score of 4
to 0. Fanning was working in excellent form and it did not look
as tho Shurtleff would ever score
as his support also was showing
in good shape.

Shurtleff showed a good team
and the men were on their toes
and fighting all the time. Crum the catcher and Blair center fielder did some excellent work for Shurtleff, Blair making the first safely off Fanning that brought
in the visitors first run.

For Illinois Jones gave Fanning
good support behind the bat and cut down several runners on the paths. While Illinois had six errors the men all played a good game and only in the sixth and seventh were their misplays
costly.

Illinois scored one run in the first, one in the third and two in the fourth. Shurtleff scored two in the sixth and one in the seventh.

Turn Your "Mite" Into "Might"

A dollar isn't much—just about the price of a good meal. A quarter is much less. With salaries and wages where they are now these amounts are just trifles; "mites." If you spend them heedlessly here and there, that's all they ever will be!

On the other hand, a few odd dollars, a couple of loose halves, and a half-dozen quarters, will give you an exceptionally good start on a savings account. You'll never miss them, and it sure will give you a prideful feeling to watch the balance in your pass-book grow.

Remember that wages won't always be as high as they are now—in fact, they have started to slump already. And the purchasing power of your dollar is getting greater every day!

FORMER DOUGHBOY WINS MARATHON IN RECORD TIME

BEAT OLD RECORD
BY TWO MINUTES

BOSTON, April 19.—The American Marathon road race with the country's leading long distance runners contesting was won today in the new record time by Frank Zuna, 26 of Newark, N. J., a former doughboy. Zuna speeded up his stride in the last four miles and pulled away from Chas. Mellor of Chicago, who had been his running mate much of the distance, and finished the 25 mile run in two hours, 18 minutes, 57 3-5 seconds. This was more than two minutes faster than that of Michael J. Ryan of New York, whose victory in two hours, 21 minutes and 18 1-5 seconds in 1912, was the best previous time.

Zuna, who carried the colors of the Paulist A. C., of New York ran his own race to win. Drawing on the experience gained in his hiking overseas where he fought with the twenty seventh division and raced to victory in the Dijon Marathon of 15 miles and the A. E. F. cross-country championship of six miles at Paris in the post armistice sports, he plotted his strategy in advance and plodded away in fulfillment of it to success.

Zuna had come to town yesterday as he expressed it "wearing his baggage." After dropping his plumbing tools at Newark, yesterday morning he tucked a toothbrush in an inside pocket, slipped his running shoes into a larger pocket outside and said his running suit suit was where he could get it when he wanted it. He carried his care free attitude into the race and thru it. Zuna reversed in today's race the result of a recent marathon at Detroit in which Mellor was the winner and Zuna second, only eight seconds behind.

Jersey City Selected for Championship Bout

NEW YORK, April 19.—Definite selection of Jersey City as the scene of the Dempsey-Carpentier heavyweight titular bout July 2, marks another step in the staging of what is expected to be the most important fight battle in the history of the prize ring.

Altho Rickard gave careful consideration to the properties submitted by both Atlantic City and Newark, it was generally understood several days ago that Jersey City would be chosen, due to its proximity to greater New York, with its five million persons to draw from within a radius of three hours travel.

The widespread interest in the bout is evidenced by rapidly increasing mail each day containing application for tickets. The sale boards will not be put on sale until the first of next month. Meanwhile applications for the higher priced tickets are accumulating faster than in any previous big bout staged by Rickard.

A FEW POINTS ABOUT FLIES

Flies have no conscience. Flies carry filth and disease germs. The fly that hatches in the privy is the same that dines at your table. Destroy fly-breeding places, and thereby eliminate the fly. One female fly in April means millions in July. Keep the garbage covered and removed frequently. Remove manure once a week during fly season. Screen houses and buildings where food exists. Teach children the danger from flies and how to destroy them. Remember the golden rule and do not carelessly maintain fly-breeding places that will annoy your neighbor. Swat the fly early and late.

CITIZENSHIP SCHOOL IN OPENING SESSION

Program Presented Tuesday Afternoon at Woman's Club Citizenship School—Many Women Registered as Members—Good Program for Today.

The Citizenship school which is being conducted under auspices of the Jacksonville Woman's club, held the first of four days' sessions Tuesday afternoon in the circuit court room. Seventy-eight women were registered as members of the school and they made up a very enthusiastic and interested group.

The program was carried out as previously announced and included addresses by Mrs. E. W. Bemis of Chicago; H. H. Bancroft and Mayor E. E. Crabtree. All the speakers had things to say which were very much worth while, and altogether the Citizenship school had a most auspicious beginning.

Following the addresses came the question box, conducted by Mrs. Bemis and Judge E. P. Brockhouse.

Mrs. Bemis gave a very inspirational and informing address on "The New Citizenship." Her words inspired her hearers with a desire for the study of their government and its functions, with the purpose of becoming better citizens. The speaker has had a great deal of experience in Americanization work and is thus able to give suggestions which if followed will bring forth while results. Mrs. Bemis is in charge of the school and there is every indication that under her leadership the local women will accomplish much in the study of civic problems.

The next speaker was H. H. Bancroft, whose theme was "The Federal Government." Mr. Bancroft in his usual pleasant manner gave an outline of the structure of our present government, going back to the early formative period and following on down thru the two year convention, and giving a brief resume of the constitution. Mr. Bancroft brought our many facts in connection with the government which were new to a majority of his hearers.

"How the Civic Government Operates" was the subject of Mayor Crabtree. He described briefly the responsibilities of the municipal government, outlining the different departments, the duties of each and the expense necessary to operate them. The speaker made a plea that the women study conditions and realize what every cent of tax money is being expended for, in order that they may know whether or not the taxes are higher than they should be, and whether or not citizens are receiving all that is due them.

As Tuesday was election day, the mayor made reference to the cost of elections, showing that each election costs the city of Jacksonville about $2,300.

In his closing remarks Mr. Crabtree complimented the Woman's club for its efforts in bringing about such gatherings as the Citizenship school, to afford opportunity for the study of civic questions. He felt that men as well as women should organize such schools and by this means become more intelligent and better citizens.

IS WORTH WEIGHT IN GOLD, HE SAYS

Illinois Farmer Wouldn't Take Finest Farm in State for Good Tanlac Did Him.

"I wouldn't take the finest farm in the state for the good Tanlac has done for me," was the emphatic statement of Adam Heinz, Kickapoo, Ill., well known farmer.

"Why, this medicine has rid me of a case of rheumatism and stomach trouble that kept me miserable for seven long years. My arms hurt me to my finger tips and my legs hurt to the very end of my toes. There were days I could not hold a plow handle or grip an axe because my fingers were so stiff. Then my stomach went wrong and even the lightest food soured, causing me to get terribly short-winded. My kidneys also went back on me and I suffered dreadful pains in my back. My nerves were so unstrung I scarcely slept any and I just had that tired worn out feeling all the time. Nothing did me any good and I finally got to where I could only do the light work around the barn."

"One day I read a piece about Tanlac that sounded pretty good to me and I decided to try the medicine. Well, sir, the way my troubles left me is certainly astonishing. Today I'm a well man and haven't an ache or pain. I got around the same as I did twenty years ago and can plow or cut wood all day and I sleep like a log at night. I gained ten pounds in weight and just feel fine. Tanlac is certainly worth its weight in gold, and I want everybody to know about my wonderful recovery."—Adv.

HORSES DECREASE ON ILLINOIS FARMS

Fall Off Ten Per Cent in Last Ten Years — Mules Increase 33 Per Cent in Same Period.

Chicago—Horses on Illinois farms have decreased more than ten percent in the last ten years, while mules have increased about 33 per cent, it is indicated by a tabulation of livestock reports received by the Illinois agricultural association. Work on the survey was started in January thru the county farm bureaus and announcement of the results was made here today.

Reports from 7,000 farms representing 61 counties situated in all parts of the state were received the associations statement notes.

Illinois' horses on farms are estimated at about 1,200,000 and mules at 195,000. Mules were about 9 1-4 per cent of the horses and mules on the farms in 1910. The association's figures indicate that they are now about 13.83 per cent.

"The present tendency to breed for mule colts rather than horse colts is stronger than this ratio indicates," says the association.

"Horse colts foaled on the reporting farms in 1920 were only 4.26 per cent of the horses on the farms January 1, 1921, a rate which would require 24 years to reproduce the number of horses. The mule colts foaled were 13.70 per cent of the number of mules on the farms January 1, 1921, almost three times the ratio for horse colts.

"Since the rate which would maintain present numbers is probably about eight per cent, it is probable that at the 1920 breeding rate, even if sales are only equal to purchases, horses on Illinois farms are decreasing about 45,000 per year, while mules are increasing about 11,500.

"The serious shortage to which a continued slump in breeding may lead is more sharply evident in the fact that Illinois, with the other central western states, has been one of the great surplus sections selling many horses to the east and mules to the cotton states, neither of these sections, either now or for many years, producing enough horses and mules for their requirements.

"The serious result of the slump in horse breeding is evidently also in the members of stallions and jacks. Figures given in the 1920 report of the Illinois Stallion Registration section disclose a decrease in the number of stallions licensed in 1920 amounting to nearly 33 per cent as compared with 1918, and nearly 64 per cent as compared with 1912. Licensed jacks in 1920 were 15 1-2 per cent more than in 1918, the number of jacks licensed being considerably more than half of the number of stallions, another proof of the tendency to breed for mule colts rather than horse colts.

"The farmers co-operating in the Illinois Agricultural associations' January Reporting Service classified 27.20 per cent of their horses as breeding mares, of which they reported that less than half were bred in 1920. No statistics are available showing the percentage of those bred that may be expected to foal colts in 1921, but it is not likely to be much, if any, in excess of half. This seems to indicate a continued shortage in the colt crop.

"Not much improvement can be expected to foal in 1921, but it is not likely to be much, if any, in excess of half. This seems to indicate a continued shortage in the colt crop.

"Not much improvement can be expected so long as low prices for horses and mules continue. The problem of desirable stallions and jacks for breeding purposes is likely to be serious when the shortage of draft stock is reflected in higher prices. Accepting the formers' estimate that 27.20 per cent of their horses are breeding mares, this means 69 breeding mares to every stallion and jack licensed in Illinois in 1920, including grade and unsound animals. It means 116 breeding mares to each draft stallion, both pure bred and grade, and 147 to each pure bred draft stallion."

PROSPECT OF WHEAT CROP GOOD

London.—The prospects of the coming world's wheat crop are favorable and the harvest is likely to produce enough to meet the world's demand, says Sir James Wilson, chairman of the Central Agricultural Wages Committee for Scotland, an authority on that subject.

He declared in an address he delivered the other day on "The World's Wheat" that the world's supply for the current cereal year is more than equal to the demand, and he predicted that on August 1 next there would be a surplus of exportable wheat left in the exporting countries. But he said, this surplus, outside of Russia and India, would not be large and if the world's future weather proved unfavorable, the fall in the world's price of wheat might be checked and the price might even rise again.

For the world as a whole, he said, there is no more reason to fear a future permanent dearth of wheat than that the world will be starved of food generally. He predicted that some time within the next 20 years the world's price of wheat, measured in gold, will return to a level not far from the pre-war average.

DOG BEGS FOOD

Clear Lake, Minn., April 15.—When the owner of a dog and nine puppies turned them out without food and refused to feed them any longer, the mother dog did just what a human mother would have done in similar circumstances. She went from door to door begging food for her little ones.

The dog would scratch at the back doors of Clear Lake Houses and when opened she would look into the face of the person who came and then at her half-starved puppies, telling as eloquently as she knew how that they were in need.

Her appeal was always heeded and food was provided for the wanderer. But in every instance the mother dog, hungry as she must have been, refused to touch any of the food until her little ones had had all they wanted.

The case was reported at length to Sam F. Fullerton, executive agent of the Minnesota Society for the Prevention of Cruelty, who investigated the story and found it true in every particular. Mr. Fullerton compelled the dog's owner to take her and her puppies back to provide enough food for them.

BOOM IN MARRIAGES
London.—There was a boom in marriages in England and Wales last year when nearly 400,000 couples were wed. This easily constitutes a record says Registrar-General.

For the three years preceding the war the annual average was only 280,000 and only twice has the 300,000 mark been passed—in 1915 and 1919—when owing to the recruiting cry of "single men first" the marriages in the second half of the year went up with a bound and eclipsed all previous figures.

THANKFUL HE WAS NOT A WOMAN

The late Lawson Tait, of England, the great woman's doctor, said he never went to bed at night without thanking heaven he was not born a woman. No doctor ever knew better than he what women have to suffer at some times of their lives. It was an American woman, long since passed to her reward, who introduced a combination of roots and herbs called Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that has proved wonderfully successful in mitigating suffering and relieving diseases of women. It has brought relief to thousands of women who suffered from female ills.—Adv.

TRAVEL CONDITIONS NOT GOOD IN GERMANY

American Tourists Will Find Them Less Attractive Than in Pre-War Times—Bread Cards are Still Necessary.

By Associated Press.
Berlin—American tourists who come to Germany this summer will find conditions of travel far less attractive than in pre-war times. In Hamburg and Berlin hotel facilities are constantly overtaxed by business men and persons who photographed days in advance for accommodations are turned away by the first class hotels. If foreigners are assigned to rooms they pay far more than is charged to Germans. Conditions along the Rhine are not especially inviting for tourists. The larger places are overtaxed by the occupying armies, and it is almost impossible for outsiders to get first-class hotel accommodations. Cologne, Koblenz, and Mainz are filled to overflowing by British, American and French officers, respectively. Most of the hotels are under control of the military and cannot be used by civilians unless they have authorization from commanding officers.

It is also difficult for tourists to travel between the various sections of the occupied area. Police registration is very strict and permits must be obtained to enter and leave various areas. In south Germany conditions are more inviting to pleasure-seekers. Dresden and Munich are not so filled with business men and the better hotels are usually able to provide tourists with rooms at rates much less than in Berlin and Hamburg. The passport problem is annoying even with Germany's own boundaries. For example, it is necessary for a tourist going from Berlin to Bavaria to have the visa of the Bavarian legation in Berlin. This precaution has been taken by Bavaria to prevent agitators from invading their territory from Berlin.

Trains are normal in Germany. Bread cards are necessary to get bread in dining cars and hotels and most of the bread served is heavy and black.

In the smaller cities and villages tourists will find living conditions much the same as they were before the war. Americans motoring thru Germany or traveling on trains are courteously treated. There is no longer any disposition to resent the use of the English language.

Few Americans in Germany
So far this year there have been few Americans in Germany excepting business men and persons who came to visit relatives. Most of these found the passport regulations very irksome. Tourists arriving at Dutch, Belgian, French or English ports suffer delays in getting visas for Germany and travel across the boundaries into Germany involves an endless making of declarations.

It is almost impossible under present conditions for tourists to travel on a fixed schedule in central Europe, especially if their trip necessitates the crossing of boundaries. Passport offices are frequently crowded. Much time is lost in getting visas, and trains have interminable waits at customhouses. Thru trains are now operating between Paris and Warsaw, which make the rail trip to Poland and the Baltic states far easier than it has been since the armistice. Trains will soon be run from Berlin to Riga, Latvia, barring passport annoyances, travel is almost normal between Berlin and Prague and Berlin and Vienna.

There are no fast boat trains now between Berlin and Hamburg and Berlin and Bremen, such as existed between the war. The great German steamship lines co-operating with American lines now operate touring companies of their own which are prepared to conduct parties throughout Germany at a fixed price, including hotel accommodations, railway fares, guides and carriages. The rates are higher than before the war, even taking the favorable American exchange into consideration.

Since the armistice there have been few American tourist parties in Germany on regularly conducted tours. The great tourist agencies have not been able to guarantee fixed rates because of the wild fluctuation in exchange and the general disruption of the organizations thru which arrangements were perfected in pre-war days.

An effort is being made by steamship lines, hotel proprietors and railway officials to get American tourist business back on a fixed basis, but the failure of the United States to make peace with Germany has been a great hindrance to such negotiations.

FARMING IS BUSINESS SUCCESS FOR THE BUSINESS FARMER

How many times you have stopped and wondered. How does he get by—His method is so poor, his ability worse. He does not try—he works on a hit and miss like a crippled car which not only sounds bad, looks bad, but is bad.

The wonderful story of the expansion of the American Farmer reads like a fairy story. In 1820 95 per cent of the people of the United States lived on farms and it took that number to produce enough for their living to take care of the other 5 per cent who lived in the towns and cities. We did not then have a surplus to ship or trade in with other countries. By the census of 1920 48 per cent of the population are on the farms and not only feed themselves, and take care of the 52 per cent who live in the cities, but produce enough to furnish quantities in which to trade with foreign countries. What has made it possible? Improved machinery and methods. It is true in Europe, the farmer, if we can so term him, produces twice as much per acre, but on an average he farms 5 acres per man, whereas as in our Great Country, we average per man more than 50 acres. Therefore, if per man in Europe they farm 5 acres and raise twice as much and we farm 50 acres per man we still beat the other countries 5 to 1. The answer again. Improved American machinery.

If the farmer of our country would take time to study some of the great, wonderful reports from our Universities on farm-improved machinery, cost of operation, if their paid advisors would honestly fill the place they are entrusted with and give proper information, the farmer would be a wonderful gainer. Even President Howard of the Farm Bureau is quoted as advising against purchase of motor equipment for field work, on the ground that the use of horses means the consumption of more grain on the farm in place of putting it on the market for sale. If this is good business, why not go back to oxen as a yoke of oxen will do less work than a team of horses and will also consume more grain and need more man power to handle.

This is an age of progress, look forward, obtain the motor tools. Just figure with motor for increased profit. One man can successfully cultivate 20 to 35 acres of corn in one day and with less effort to himself, than he could cultivate 10 acres with a riding cultivator and a team of horses. U. S. Government bulletin No. 73 which has been issued for the benefit of the farmer claims it cost $156.77 to feed one horse one year. It takes 44 per cent of the acreage cropped by one horse to maintain the horse a year. This means you obtain for your work and investment just 66 per cent of the acreage.

ATTEMPT MADE

TO KILL JUDGES
Lisbon.—Attempts to assassinate the judges of the Tribunal of Public Defense continue. Several of the members of the court already have been killed or wounded. The latest attempt was made on the life of Dr. Ferreira de Sousa, one of the judges, who was shot three times as he entered the gate of his own garden.

His life was saved by the fact that one of the bullets aimed at his heart pierced a pocketbook and was stopped by his fountain pen, the bullet falling harmlessly into his pocket where it was found.

The police attribute these attacks to members of the Young Syndicate's association.

Dr. Ramos Preto, formerly of the cabinet and author of the law creating the Tribunal of Public Defense has received a letter threatening him with death and signed by "The Red Committee."

STOMACH DISTRESS

Peoria, Ill.—I found great help from the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I was suffering from stomach trouble and nothing seemed to relieve me until I took the "Discovery." Gradually the distress diminished and finally left me entirely. I also find Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets a good family medicine. They clear the liver and stomach of all impurities, in fact, I find them the only thing that will keep myself and family in health."—Michael M. Schuster, 300 Eckley St. Send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a trial pkg. of any of his remedies.

THREAD-RUBBER INSULATION

Willard

Say "Threaded Rubber Insulation"

The Willard Threaded Rubber Battery is immune to all old-time wood-separator ills. The plates are insulated—not merely separated.

No money out of your pocket for separator replacement, because Willard Threaded Rubber Insulation neither warps, cracks, carbonizes nor punctures. It outlasts the battery plates.

Ask about the Willard Threaded Rubber Battery—the only battery with Threaded Rubber Insulation.

The funeral of Private Leroy Pinkerton, who was killed in action at the battle of Belleaucourt on Oct. 11, 1918, and whose body arrived here on Friday morning, was held Sunday afternoon at the Baptist church, of which he was a member.
